23:58:00 GMT Undertow - Relative Undertow By Mark Souza There is a weight to silence some find unbearable. To Amy Szabo it was as warm and comforting as an old quilt. It wasn't always so. At first she had no choice and silence was a reminder of loss. But over time, she adapted until silence became a fortress protecting her from a noisy world full of expectations and danger. Relative Undertow - The Scary Story - This article reviews historical and contemporary policies, ideologies, and educational prescriptions for language-minority students. It notes language and literacy policies historically have been used as instruments of social control and that racism and linguistic intolerance have often been closely linked with antecedents in the colonial and early nationalist periods as well as in nativist ...
